

DAVNAILAW

David Naidoo & Associates

Newsletter April 2019

Welcome to the April edition of DAVNAILAW the David Naidoo & Associates newsletter.

A newsletter for clients, friends of the practice and special interest groups.

This is a free service and in this edition we have some topical articles about:

- The role of an expert witness in a building dispute
- Growing your business - recruiting in the building and construction industry
- What does it mean to be an owner-builder?

We hope you enjoy the articles.

The role of an expert witness in a building dispute

If you are involved in a building dispute an expert witness may be retained to provide an opinion to assist in resolving the dispute or guide a decision-maker on the outcome. The role of an expert witness is often misunderstood.

Click here to read more

Growing your business – recruiting in the building and construction industry

As your building practice grows, you may be considering hiring staff to take on the extra work. This article provides a basic guide and some tips for those considering recruiting staff in the building industry.

Click here to read more

What does it mean to be an owner-builder?

Being an owner-builder can be rewarding, but before taking on your new home building project it is important to understand the extent of your obligations as an owner-builder so an informed decision can be made.

Click here to read more

This newsletter is intended to provide general information.
You should obtain professional advice before you undertake any course of action.

PO Box 500 Hampton Park, Vic 3976
Phone: 03 8787 8900 Fax: 03 8787 8955
Email: law@davidnaidoo.com.au

Copyright © David Naidoo & Associates. All rights reserved.
Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation

Powered by Lift Legal
unsubscribe | update preferences