Newsletter March 2019

Welcome to the March edition of DAVNAILAW the David Naidoo & Associates newsletter.

A newsletter for clients, friends of the practice and special interest groups.

This is a free service and in this edition we have some topical articles about:

- Protecting your plans - Copyright basics
- Pursuing a domestic building dispute through VCAT
- Quantum meruit claims and wrongful termination of a building contract

We hope you enjoy the articles.

Protecting your plans – Copyright basics

Architectural designs and plans are a valuable commodity. As technology facilitates the seamless reproduction of printed and digital material, architects and draftpersons should be vigilant in protecting their original work.

Pursuing a domestic building dispute through VCAT

Domestic Building Dispute Resolution Victoria requires a mandatory conciliation process before disputes proceed to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, this requires careful preparation and procedural compliance.
